

XFORTA FINANCIAL TECHNOLOGIES LTD Privacy Policy

Last Updated: January 11, 2021

Company is in the business of providing electronic payment services to individuals and entities (collectively the “Customers”).

Company, or one of its affiliates, also maintains a relationship with a principal member of MasterCard International (the “Member Bank”) under which the Member Bank maintains, operates and administers a co-branded prepaid debit card program to facilitate the Company’s payments.

The Company is committed to safeguarding Customers’ personal information in its possession. The Company considers “Personal information” to be information related to a specific person that can be used to identify that person. Anonymized information that does not identify a specific person is not considered personal information under this Privacy Policy.

For the purpose of the relevant data protection regulations, XFORTA FINANCIAL TECHNOLOGIES LTD is the “Data controller” of your information. We are located at 319 W Hastings Street #400, Vancouver, British Columbia, V6B 1H6. If you have any questions about how we protect or use your data, please email us at privacy@fortapayments.com.

This Privacy Policy answers frequently asked questions about online privacy, including what personal information the Company collects and how it will be used and protected. The Company may from time to time change this Privacy Policy, so please re-read it periodically.

HOW AND WHAT NON-PUBLIC PERSONAL INFORMATION THE COMPANY COLLECTS

If you visit the Company’s website (“Site”) for informational purposes only, the Company will not require you to provide any personal information. You will remain anonymous unless you register for any of our services or otherwise elect to disclose your identity. However, the Company may collect and store certain visitor data including, but not limited to, browser type, Internet Protocol (“IP”) address, and geo-location information.

At other times, the Company may collect certain Customer-related personal information, such as:

- If an individual registers for an account with the Company, the Company will request information which includes the individual's name, email address, physical address, country of residence, contact phone numbers, date of birth, tax identification number, employment information, and the Company may request bank account details and credit and/or debit card details;
- If an entity registers for an account with the Company, the Company will request information from certain owners, directors and authorized individuals for the entity which includes those individuals' names, email addresses, physical addresses, contact phone numbers, dates of birth, and government issued identification numbers;
- Before a Customer utilizes any of the Company's services and throughout our relationship with a Customer, the Company may require a Customer to provide additional information to verify an individual's identity, address or other data to manage risk and compliance. We may also obtain information from third parties providing services such as identity verification, fraud prevention and similar services;
- If you choose to participate in a customer survey, the Company may ask for your name, email address and other information required by the particular survey; and
- If you report a problem or submit a customer review, the Company will ask you to provide information such as your name, email address, and account number.

Additionally, when a Customer has registered for an account with the Company and logs into the account, the Company may collect the IP address, standard log-in information and certain geo-location information.

The Company does not knowingly collect information about any person under the age of 18.

HOW THE COMPANY USES THE DATA IT COLLECTS

The Company will use personal information to conduct certain activities related to a Customer's use of the Site and to service any account a Customer maintains with the Company. Such use will include:

- Evaluating a Customer for the Company services a Customer requests;
- Registering a Customer as a client and opening an account;
- Contacting a Customer to verify or reconfirm the accuracy of the information provided;

- Facilitating payments and transactions as directed by a Customer;
- Verifying the existence and availability of funds;
- Administering a Customer's account;
- Assisting in the provision of other services or products requested by a Customer;
- Resolving disputes and troubleshooting problems;
- Preventing potentially fraudulent, prohibited or illegal activities and enforcing our contracts with a Customer;
- Complying with legal process such as subpoenas and court orders and performing other duties as required by law;
- Researching the demographics and behaviors of the Company's Customers; and
- Reporting to law enforcement authorities if the Company believes a crime has been committed.

PROFILING AND AUTOMATED DECISION MAKING

We may use some instances of your data in order to customize our Services and the information we provide to you, and to address your needs - such as your country of address and transaction history. For example, if you frequently send funds from one particular currency to another, we may use this information to inform you of new product updates or features that may be useful for you. When we do this, we take all necessary measures to ensure that your privacy and security are protected - and we only use pseudonymized data where ever possible. This activity has no legal effect on you.

As part of being a highly technical and innovative company, we may use Automated Decision Making (ADM) in order to improve your experience, or to help fight financial crime. For example, so that we can provide you with a fast and efficient service, we may use ADM to verify your identity documents, or to confirm the accuracy of the information you have provided to us. None of our ADM processes have a legal effect on you.

COOKIES POLICY

A "Cookie" is a small amount of data that is sent to your browser from a web server and is stored on your computer's hard drive. Cookies do not provide the Company with any personally identifying information about you such as your name or address.
